G.E.T. Loud: Girls Empowered Together

Presented by the Junior League of Sacramento

March 23, 2019 | Arthur A. Benjamin Health Professions High School

WHAT IS G.E.T. LOUD?

G.E.T. Loud is a one-day empowerment event for girls in grades five to eight and their parents aimed to break down barriers of access to programming, by including targeted attendance from girls in underserved neighborhoods. G.E.T. Loud will feature seminars and workshops that empower girls, with tracks focused on Head, Heart, Hand, and Imagination. The 2018 event included a robotics lab, coding workshop, internet safety seminar, community engagement seminar by City Councilwoman Angelique Ashby, basketball clinic by the Sacramento Kings, and an entrepreneurship discussion with a 13-year-old female business owner.

G.E.T. Loud supports JLS' mission to develop women leaders, promote voluntarism, and improve our community. Specifically, JLS is focusing on empowering girls to be confident leaders through programming centered on self-esteem, character development, and educational achievement. JLS has a 75-year history in Sacramento and has played a leading role in the creation or critical growth of many local organizations including Fairytale Town, Children's Receiving Home of Sacramento, Sacramento Region Community Foundation, Crisis Nursery, Sacramento Regional Arts Council, and more.
